

UN Summer Program on International Law

<https://legal.un.org/poa/ilfp/index.html>

The International Law Fellowship Program offers intensive training by leading specialists in international law. The program takes place in The Hague and includes lectures and seminars on key legal topics organized by the UN Office of Legal Affairs.

Financial support covers airfare, accommodation, health insurance, tuition, and participation in the Hague Academy of International Law session. The program is conducted in English and French.

Deadline: February 26, 2025.